THE Easter Recital at the Christian church Friday evening was an exceedingly high-class entertainment and it was enjoyed by a reasonably good audience. The best singers in town took part and the solos, quartettes and choruses were all well rendered. The recitations by the children and the pantomime by a dozen youngsters evoked much favorable comment. The violin numbers of Miss Em E. Smith, of Danville, were features of the very delightful program. She is a virtuoso in her line and our people will not soon forget the sweet music she made. Dinwiddie or any other person for the Republican nomination for Prosecuting Attorney of the Police Court. COBB.—A good mother in Israel passed into the great beyond Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. Minerva Cobb, relict of Mr. Richard Cobb, breathed her last. She had been ill only a short while with pneumonia but her advanced age—87—precluded hope of her recovery and many of her relatives, including a brother, Mr. Eli Park, and sister, Mrs. Tabitha Cobb, both of Madison, were present when the end peacefully came. Deceased was Miss Minerva Park, of Madison county, and was married in 1811 to the husband who preceded her to the grave in 1900. Sixty-seven years ago she joined the Christian church and had since been a consistent member. A few Sundays since she was in her accustomed pew, seemingly in the best of health and spirits. She enjoyed the sermon and so told many of her friends. Mrs. Cobb is survived by three children, Mesdames Thos. Phelps, of Richmond, and Bettie McKinney, of this place, and Mr. Richard Cobb, of Boyle, and a large number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. It is hard for them to give up the good mother and grand-mother, but she had been spared to them many long years and now that she is reaping the reward of a well-spent life, they could not wish her back. She was an exceedingly cheerful, happy woman and it was the delight of her children and other relatives to have her with them. Truly a good woman has left her earthly abode and joined the heavenly hosts above where joy and love reign supreme. May her good deeds and pure life be emulated. Rev. D. M. Walker preached an appropriate funeral discourse at the home of Mr. W. M. Bright nt 2:30 yesterday afternoon, after which the body was laid to rest beside her husband in Buffalo cemetery. A large crowd of friends and relatives was present and flowers brought by those who loved the Godly woman hid from view the mound that marks her resting place.

CAPT. B. F. POWELL had a narrow escape Sunday. The horse he was riding ran away when the bridle broke and for some 500 yards fairly flew. The captain grasped the animal around the neck and held on until it finally stopped. Capt. Powell says he has heard cannon balls whistle around him but was never quite so uneasy as when swinging to the speedy horse.

THE Easter services at the various churches were well attended and greatly enjoyed. At the Methodist church at night an especially interesting program was given. At the Presbyterian church in the morning the program included a violin solo by Miss Berta Jean Penny, which was faultlessly rendered. The Baptist and Christian choirs gave a number of appropriate selections.
